

HUDSON YOUTH FOOTBALL & CHEERLEADING

2011 Parent Code of Conduct

Hudson Youth Football & Cheerleading requires that the parent, legal guardian, or adult designee for each program participant acknowledge, sign and return a code of conduct form, on behalf of their family and guests, each season.

This code of conduct provides the tenets of sportsmanship, which must be followed, in terms of behavior toward the program's participants, coaches, referees, leadership, volunteers, opponents, and other spectators. Violations of any of the terms of the signed code of conduct are subject to sanctions by the league, including (but not limited to):

- Verbal and/or Written Admonishments,
- Suspension from League Events, Practices and/or Games,
- Lawful Removal from Program Event Premises, and
- The Issuance & Legal Enforcement of No-Trespass Orders,

The guiding behavioral principles that must be followed by the families, friend & guests of all children who participate in Hudson Youth Football & Cheerleading are provided, as follows:

Preamble

The essential elements of character-building and ethics in sports are embodied in the concept of sportsmanship and six (6) core principles: trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring, and good citizenship. The highest potential of sports is achieved when competition reflects these "six pillars of character."¹

I therefore agree:

1. I will not force my child to participate in sports.^{2,9}
2. I will remember that children participate to have fun and that the game is for youth, not adults.^{6,9}
3. I will inform the coach of any physical disability or ailment that may affect the safety of my child or the safety of others.⁹
4. I will learn the rules of the game and the policies of the league.^{7,3}
5. I will understand & follow all league policies.
6. I (and my guests) will be a positive role model for my child and encourage sportsmanship by showing respect and courtesy, and by demonstrating positive support for all players, coaches, officials and spectators at every game, practice or other sporting event.¹⁰
7. I (and my guests) will not engage in any kind of unsportsmanlike conduct with any official, coach, player, or parent, such as booing and taunting; refusing to shake hands; or using profane language or gestures.^{3,6,7,8}
8. I will not encourage any behaviors or practices that would endanger the health and well-being of the athletes.
9. I will teach my child to play by the rules and to resolve conflicts without resorting to hostility or violence.^{5,2}
10. I will demand that my child treat other players, coaches, officials and spectators with respect regardless of race, creed, color, sex, or ability.^{6,9}
11. I will teach my child that doing one's best is more important than winning, so that my child will never feel defeated by the outcome of a game or his/her performance.²
12. I will praise my child for competing fairly and trying hard, and make my child feel like a winner every time.²
13. I will never ridicule or yell at my child or other participant for making a mistake or losing a competition.^{2,5}
14. I will emphasize skill development and practices and how they benefit my child over winning. I will also de-emphasize games and competition in the lower age groups.¹⁰
15. I will promote the emotional and physical well-being of the athletes ahead of any personal desire I may have for my child to win.⁹
16. I will respect the officials and their authority during games and will never question, discuss, or confront coaches at the game field, and will take time to speak with coaches at an agreed upon time and place.^{4,7}
17. I will demand a sports environment for my child that is free from drugs, tobacco, and alcohol and I will refrain from their use at all sports events.⁶
18. I will refrain from coaching my child or other players during games and practices, unless I am one of the official coaches of the team.⁴
19. I will accept & abide by any sanctions taken by the league for violations of this Code of Conduct.
